

63 responses submitted

Double Zip Wire. This equipment will have two lines. A cableway (zip wire) is the ultimate dare devil attraction. It may attract less evident risk profiles too: with its...

■ Yes ■ No

A zipwire would be used in the park

If possible, an accessible seat would be an asset.

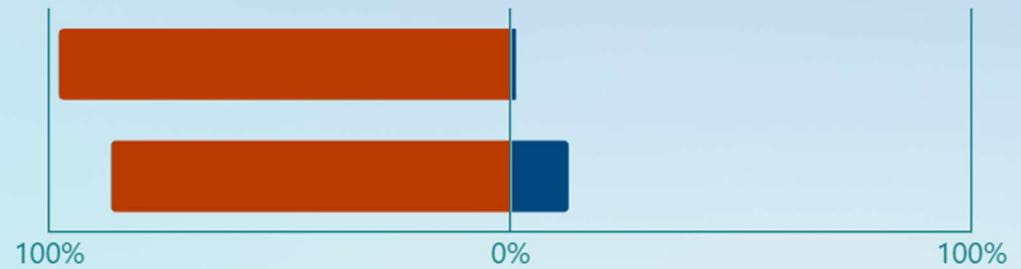

63 responses submitted

Basket Swing. Basket swings offer significant benefits for children with physical disabilities, such as limited mobility or muscle weakness. The design and support...

■ Yes ■ No

Basket Swing Would be used in the park

If you would use it, would you prefer a solid seat (as in picture) over a rope seat?

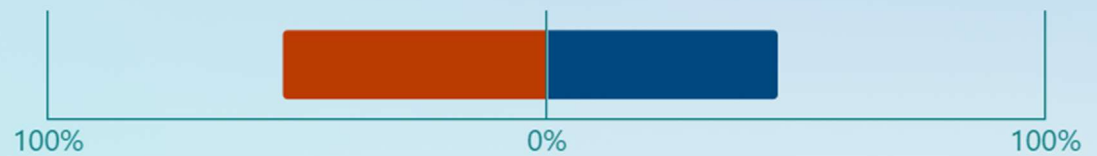

63 responses submitted

Hammocks Children can sway mildly or wildly, lie, be seated or even stand in the Rope Hammock. Children of all abilities will take joy in the responsiveness and so...

Yes No

Hammocks would be used in the park

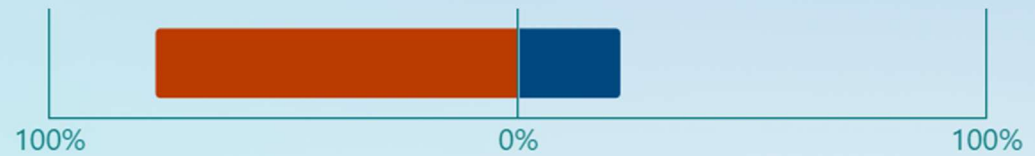

63 responses submitted

Pendulum Rope Swing A pendulum rope swing provides endless fun for large groups of children who can all use the swing at the same time. The unit promotes...

■ Yes ■ No

Pendulum Rope Swing would be used in the park

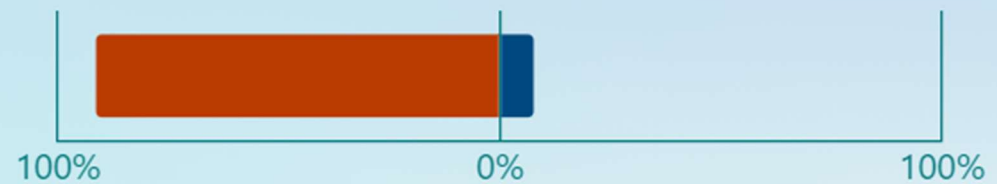

63 responses submitted

Carousel / Rotating Swing Designed for older children, a carousel spinner variation encourages repeated play for brave-hearts as w...

Yes No

Carousel swings would be used in the park

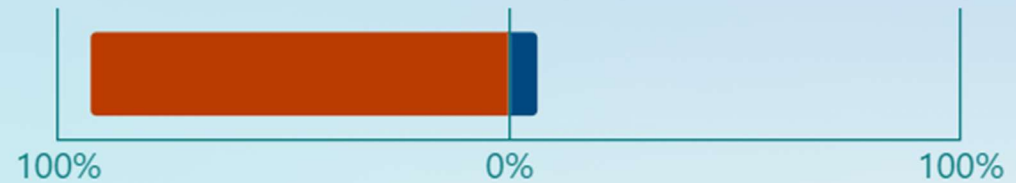

63 responses submitted

Swings Swings with standard seats. A classic design, swings are as popular as they have ever been for the preteen and teen age...

Yes No

Swings would be used in the park

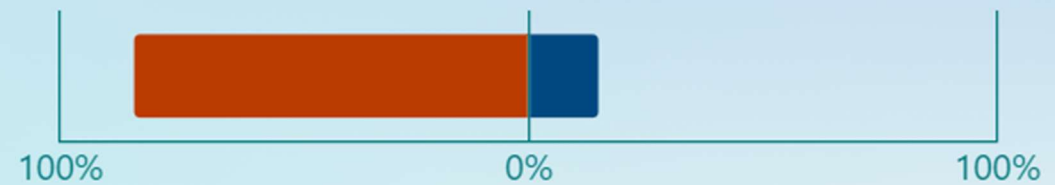

63 responses submitted

Classic slide A classic is fun play and children can't wait to try it out again and again. Looping the stair and the slide, apart from...

Yes No

Slide would be used in the park

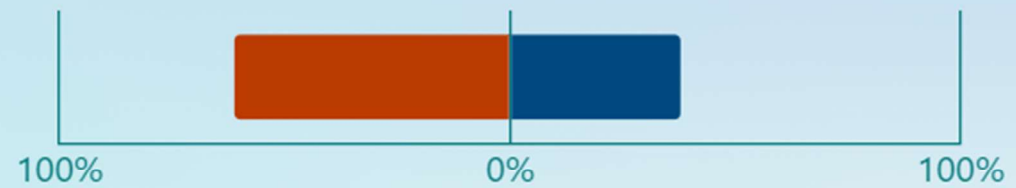

63 responses submitted

Chill Out Zone With hammock seating to provide somewhere to sit and chat with friends.

Yes No

Hammock seating for chilling out with friends would provide a...

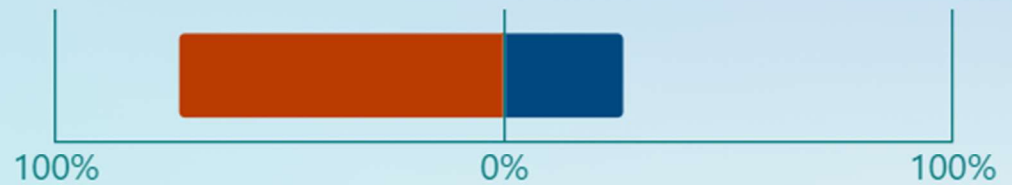

63 responses submitted

Freestyle (or similar equipment) All the fun of the skate park on this dynamic unit designed for the older age group.

Yes No

Something like this would be a great addition to the park

63 responses submitted

Freestyler With its roots in surfing, kite surfing, skateboarding and snowboarding this style equipment really is the ride to get them...

Yes No

This sort of equipment would be great in the park

